

English

The Lonely Beast
by Chris Judge

- Caption Writing for information
- Persuasive letter writing
- Complete Narrative - alternative version

Joining words and joining clauses with 'and'

Regular plural noun suffixes

Range of sentence structures

Traditional tale voice

Oral storytelling language

Subordination and co-ordination

(including fronted adverbials)

Past tense including progressive form

Expanded noun phrases

Range of suffixes and compound words

Investigating spelling patterns

Maths

- Read, write and tell the time to o'clock and half past on analogue clock
- Sequencing daily activities
- Whole and half turns linked to time
- Model, explain and choose addition and subtraction strategies within 20
- 2-digit numbers within 50 – represent, sequence, explore, compare
- Count in 2s, 5s and 10s within 50
- Describe and complete number patterns within 50

Science

- The children will collect information about changes that happen in spring and describe their observations e.g. themselves, animals, plants that change over the seasons
- They will use gather evidence on the general types of weather and changes in day length and record these in tables and charts
- The children will classify objects in different ways and be able to classify them by the material it is made of
- They will be able to identify and use the key vocabulary of wood, plastic, glass, metal, water and rock for describing materials

RE

Is prayer important to everyone?

Reflecting on why people might or might not pray

Empathising by showing respect for the thoughts and views of others

Investigating by gathering evidence about the ways in which people pray from photos or visitors

Interpreting by drawing meaning from the language / symbolic action used in prayer and

Expressing their concept of prayer and comparing it with others' views

A Place in the Sun Why are some countries hot? Year 1 Curriculum Spring 1

PSHE/RSE

- The children will learn about belonging to a community and rules
- They will understand that different people have different needs
- They will think about how we care for people, animals and other living things
- They will learn how they can look after the environment
- They will learn about how and why people use the internet and the benefits of using it and digital devices

Geography

- The children will record seasonal weather patterns of the united Kingdom
- On a chart they will record the daily weather for a week and be able to identify any themes
- They will be able to locate hot and cold areas of the world in relation to the Equator
- On a map they will locate and mark on those hot and cold areas and locate and label the Equator
- The children will use world maps, atlases and globes to locate and identify the world's seven continents and five oceans
- On a map they will be able to locate and name the world's seven continents and five oceans

Computing

Lego Builders

- Children will understand the importance of following instructions
- Children will follow and create simple instructions on the computer
- Children will consider how the order of instructions affects the results

DT

- The children will investigate sliders and make mock ups to see what would make a good slider mechanism
- They will design a picture related to the Lonely Beast book with a slider mechanism
- They will make the slider and then evaluate what went well and what they would change next time

Music

- Compose word patterns in groups and melodies in pairs using mi-re-do
- Chant together rhythmically, marking rests accurately
- Play a simple ostinato on untuned percussion
- Sing an echo song while tapping the beat, and clap the rhythm of the words, understanding there is one beat for each syllable
- Recognise the difference between a pattern with notes (pitched) and without (unpitched)

PE

- The children will be able to observe and describe movements
- They will name some things they are good at
- They will understand and follow simple rules
- The children will perform shape skills on the floor and with apparatus
- The children will perform travel skills on the floor and with apparatus

Cooking

- The children will learn about the basic principles of a healthy and varied diet and create a healthy eating plate
- They will develop their understanding where food comes from
- The children will make Jam Tarts – using skills such as measuring, mixing, cutting (cutter), filling, greasing